

Wednesday 7th January 2015

Registration	08:30 – 09:00	Location: Entrance Area to PCL048 Hogan Lovells Lecture Theatre in The Palatine Centre, Durham University.
Keynote Location: PCL048 Hogan Lovells	09.15 – 10.00	Welcome Messages: Conference Organising Committee and Prof. Linda McKie, Head of School of Applied Social Sciences, Durham University. Official Opening of the Conference: Prof. Claire Warwick, Pro-Vice Chancellor (Research) Durham University.
	10:00 – 11:00	Key Note: The changing landscape of sport policy in England. Professor Barrie Houlihan, Loughborough University.
Coffee break	11:00 – 11:30	Location: Entrance Area to PCL048 Hogan Lovells Lecture Theatre in The Palatine Centre
		Panel Ia: Politics of Disability Sport. Location: PCL048 Hogan Lovells Chair: Martin Roderick.	Panel Ib: Sport and Scottish Politics. Location: PCL050 Chair: David McArdle	Panel Ic: Sport and Middle East Politics. Location: PCL053 Chair: Paul Gilchrist.	Panel Id: Sport Policy and Social Justice Location: PCL054 Chair: Eilidh Macrae
Parallel Session I	11:30 – 12:00	An exploratory investigation into retired British Paralympic athlete's views on disability equality in the UK. Stuart Braye, Tom Gibbons and Kevin Dixon, Teesside University.	The methods used and issues faced by the "Sport For Yes" campaign. Anthony May, Manchester Metropolitan University.	International sport as a diplomatic instrument – Moeen Ali, the use of the wristband and the Save Gaza and Free Palestine Campaigns. Russell Holden, University of Worcester.	Sport and austerity in the UK: An insight into and update on Liverpool. Daniel Parnell, Leeds Beckett University.
	12:00 – 12:30	The Invictus Games: sport, war and disability. Neil King, Edge Hill University.	The Working Group on Scottish Sport and the Scottish independence referendum: an unrealised political 'imaginary'? Stuart Whigham St Mary's University, Twickenham	Anti-Semitism, Anti-Zionism and Sport. Jon Dart, Leeds Beckett University.	Sex sport and money: voice, choice and distributive justice in England, Scotland and Wales. Cathy Devine, University of Cumbria.
	12:30 – 13:00	Mediation through Impairment: diplomatic discourse and the Paralympic Movement. Aaron Beacom, University of St Mark & St John.	Constructing a New 'Sectarianism' in Scottish Football. Stuart Waiton, Abertay University.	Cui Bono? Arabs, Football and State Policy. Amir Ben Porat, Ben Gurion University, Israel	Sports policy between state intervention and sports autonomy: Key events, patterns and trends of the Spanish sport policy. Ninja Putzmann, German Sport University Cologne, Germany.
Lunch	13:00 – 14:00	Location: ES230 in Earth Sciences Building, opposite The Palatine Centre

		Panel IIa: Sport and the Law Location: PCL048 Hogan Lovells Chair: Barrie Houlihan	Panel IIb: Community Sport Policy Location: PCL050 Chair: Thomas Raymen.	Panel IIc: Open Panel Location: PCL053 Chair: Stacey Pope.	Panel IId: Racism and Antisemitism in Sport. Location: PCL054 Chair: Emma Poulton.
Parallel Session II	14:00 – 14:30	Contaminated Products, ‘Intent’ and ‘Risk’ in the Parallel World of WADA. David McArdle (Stirling University School of Law) and Marjolaine Viret (Attorney-at-law, University of Neuchâtel School of Law, Switzerland).	“It’s like a marriage... some of it’s alright... some of it’s really good... some of it’s a nightmare”: voluntary sports clubs and their partnerships. Stephen Robson and Janine Partington, Leeds Beckett University	Ethics and interpreting in the football industry. Roger Baines, University of East Anglia	Sport, racism and social media: is online racism really a problem and in what ways can it be challenged? Daniel Kilvington, Neil Farrington and Lee Hall, University of Sunderland
	14:30 – 15:00	GAA, Violence and the Criminal Law. Daniel Watters, Queen’s University Belfast.	Sports Volunteering on University-Led Outreach Projects: Building Bridges. John Hayton, Liverpool John Moores University	Female cricket fans in India, 1950-2000. Souvik Naha, ETH Zurich, Switzerland.	Now you see me, now you don’t. Is (lack of) sports policy an answer to Mario Balotelli’s turbulent relationship with Italian football and Italian society? Max Mauro, Southampton Solent University
	15:00 – 15:30	Firearms policy in the UK: data management, reform and the social relations. Sam Hillyard and David Wall, Durham University.	Consequences of sports development - the “sports for all”-conception and its challenges in regions with declining population. Alexander Fuchs & Jens Flatau, Christian-Albrechts-University Kiel, Germany	From Isolation to Internationalism: Football and the Politics of Transition in Spain 1975- 1982. Jim O’Brien, Southampton Solent University	Antisemitism in Polish football. A real threat or anachronism? Jacek Burski, University of Lodz, Poland.
Coffee break	15:30 – 16:00	Location: Entrance Area to PCL048 Hogan Lovells Lecture Theatre in The Palatine Centre
		Panel IIIa: Physical Activity and Public Policy 1. Location: PCL048 Hogan Lovells Chair: Karen Throsby	Panel IIIb: Football-related Disorder. Location: PCL050 Chair: Peter Millward	Panel IIIc: Elite Sport Policy. Location: PCL054 Chair: Jimmy O’Gorman
Parallel Session III	16:00 – 16:30	Telling tales: the curious case of the evidence-free policy guidance. Tess Kay, Brunel University	A European approach towards football hooliganism. Peter Coenen, Maastricht University, the Netherlands & University of Lucerne, Switzerland.	Elite Sport Governance and the Technocratic Engineer: Thanking the boys at Microsoft! Andrew Manley and Shaun Williams University of Bath
	16:30 – 17:00	Narratives of Inactivity: Personal Lives, Political Problems and Physical Activity for Public Health. Louise Mansfield, Brunel University.	The Derby That Was Postponed: Football Supporters in Genoa, Rivalries and Resistance. Dino Numerato, Loughborough University.	New Institutionalism and elite sport policy in the UK. Pippa Chapman, Loughborough University.
	17:00 – 17:30	Local promoters of an active life for seniors (60 years old or more) in France: Free spirits. Christine Caluzio, Université de Paris-Est Marne-la-Vallée, France.	No more hooligans terraces? – dimensions of football fandom in Poland. Radoslaw Kossakowski, Gdansk University, Poland	UKSport and institutional pressure that hinder organisational turnaround. James Bostock, Sheffield Hallam University.
CLOSE	17:30	NB: Conference Dinner: 19.00 Hatfield College Main Dining Room, Hatfield College, The Bailey, Durham City (near to Durham Cathedral and Castle)

Thursday 8th January 2015

Registration	09:15 – 09:40	NB: There is no need to register if you did so on the first day.
		Panel IVa: Cultural Politics of Public Spaces and Sport Location: PCL048 Hogan Lovells Chair: Eric Anderson.	Panel IVb: Sport and Social Cohesion Location: PCL050 Chair: Hannah King	Panel IVc: Sport and International Development Location: PCL053 Chair: Louise Mansfield.	Panel IVd: Social Movements and the Politics of Resistance Location: PCL054 Chair: Sam Hillyard.
Parallel Session IV	09:45 – 10:15	The Olympic Games and the Juridification of Public Space. Guy Osborn and Andrew Smith University of Westminster.	Social cohesion through Sport: In what ways can a values based sports project address the wider issue of social cohesion in a culturally divided town? David Meir, University Centre at Blackburn College.	Learning from international development governance? Current approaches and future potential in the emergent sport-for-development sector. Iain Lindsey, Durham University.	Standing Against Modern Football: Building Networks of Outrage and Hope. Peter Millward, Liverpool John Moores University.
	10:15 – 10:45	Security at the 2014 World Cup – A look from inside. Dennis Pauschinger, University of Kent. & University of Hamburg.	Red Card: Sport, Justice and Social Control. Nic Groombridge, St Mary's University, Twickenham.	Right to Play Ghana: Comprador Class or Microcosm of International Development? Kate Manzo, University of Newcastle.	The performance of politics amongst the ultras. Mark Doidge, University of Brighton.
	10:45 – 11:15	'Countercultural' sport: reappraising a political trope. Paul Gilchrist, University of Brighton.	Irish nationalist football discourse in Northern Ireland and the effectiveness of integrated PR/Communication strategies to combat sectarianism. Owen Fenton, Queen's University, Belfast.	Elephant in the Room: Empowerment and Power within Sport and International Development. Elizabeth Rogers, Ulster University.	"12:12 no atmosphere without influence" The protest of German football supporters against 'authorities'. Christian Brandt & Fabian Hertel, Germany.
	11:15 – 11:45	Parkour and the Production of Space through Affective Movement. Thomas Raymen, Durham University.	Sport and Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency in Poor Districts in Towns of the Parisian Suburbs: Consequences of controversial terminologies. Coralie Lessard, Université Paris-Est Marne-la-Vallée (U-PEM).	Sport for development in the Warm heart of Africa: A British university project in Malawi. Joel Rookwood, Liverpool Hope University.	The ticket touts of today: An ethnographic study of black market ticket resale. Alessandro Moretti, University of Greenwich.
Coffee break	11:45 – 12:15	Location: Entrance Area to PCL048 Hogan Lovells Lecture Theatre in The Palatine Centre
Keynote: Location: PCL048 Hogan Lovells	12:15 – 13:15	Welcome and Introduction: Prof. Veronica Strang (Executive Director of the Institute of Advanced Study, Durham University)  Key Note: 'Question Time' with: Rt Hon Sir Hugh Robertson KCMG MP
Lunch	13:15 – 14:15	Location: ES230 in Earth Sciences Building, opposite The Palatine Centre

		Panel Va: Physical Activity and Public Policy 2 Location: PCL048 Hogan Lovells Chair: Caroline Dodd-Reynolds.	Panel Vb: Sports Mega-Events and Politics Location: PCL050 Chair: Russell Holden.	Panel Vc: Sport Coaching Policy and Politics Location: PCL053 Chair: Iain Lindsey.	Panel Vd: The Politics of Gender and Sexuality Location: PCL054 Chair: Mark McCormack.
Parallel Session V	14:15 – 14:45	Building up the bioprene: marathon swimming and the problem of body fat. Karen Throsby, University of Leeds.	Getting ready for the Games: Glasgow Sports Development team's strategy to prep sports clubs for the 2014 Commonwealth Games. Eilidh Macrae, Abertay University.	The changing nature of professional football academy coaching in light of the implementation of the EPPP. Jimmy O’Gorman & Mark Partington, Edge Hill University.	"‘They’re Not Real Fans Like The Men Are’: Gendered Stereotypes of ‘Inauthentic’ Female Football Fans" Stacey Pope, Durham University.
	14:45 – 15:15	Active ageing, active gaming: Exercise technologies and later life. Brad Millington, University of Bath.	Measuring Legacy: An Actor-Network Theory Approach to Understanding the Impact of Mega-Events. Jordan Dawson, Loughborough University.	Exploring the barriers to South Asian cricket players’ entry and progression in coaching. Thomas Fletcher, David Piggott, Julian North, Kevin Hylton, Steve Gilbert & Leanne Norman, Leeds Beckett University.	The Prevalence and Purpose of Men’s Same-Sex Kissing in Sport Eric Anderson, University of Winchester.
	15:15 – 15:45	Healthy and Active Ageing through Sport. Claire Jenkin, Jannique van Uffelen, Hans Westerbeek and Rochelle Eime, Victoria University.	A comparative analysis of mega-event bidding policy in the UK and Turkey. Paul Salisbury (Leeds Trinity University) and Cem Tinaz (Okan University, Istanbul)	Sports coach as transformative leader: arresting school disengagement through community sport-based initiatives. Haydn Morgan and Anthony Bush University of Bath.	‘They see us as a ‘normal’ team’: gay footballers, local leagues and tacking homophobia in football from the bottom up. Teresa Willis, Open University.
	15:45 – 16:15		Social and spatial processes of transformation in favelas of Rio de Janeiro triggered off by Mega-Events. Michael Schmied, Vienna, Austria.
Close	16:15	The Conference Organising Committee wishes you a safe trip home: Bon Voyage!			